Camp BARSTOW 1989

Where Memories Begin

The most popular spot on a warm day is in the cool waters of Lake Urquhart. Here lessons are given for the beginner, while more experienced Scouts may work on badges in swimming and boating. Afternoon or evening recreational swims are a great way to complete a fun day at summer camp.

PATHFINDER

The First-Year Camper Program was designed for the Scout who is in scouting for the first time or Scouts who are less than First Class in rank. Therefore, it focuses on fundamental skills. It also provides for the exploration of new areas of interest.

VOYAGER HIGH ADVENTURES

This year both exciting Voyager High Adventure programs will be offered. The "Mountain Adventure" will be July 16-22. The "River Adventure" will run June 16-24. A special information flyer will be available by February.

AQUATICS WEEK PROGRAM

This year's "Aquatics Week" is much expanded over programs of the past. Many new programs not available during summer camp will be added during 1989. Details of the program, age requirements and fees will be available during February. This program will be offered only one week — July 30 - August 5.

Second Week: June 25-July 1

GUIDE FOR PARENTS

How to Register Your Son for Camp Barstow

Step 1: Check with your son's Scoutmaster to determine what week his troop is planning to attend. The fee is $80.00 per Scout if your son pays $30.00 by April 28, 1989, (this qualifies him to receive the "Early Bird" segment) and the balance of $50.00 by June 12, 1989. The $30.00 is transferable, but not refundable. After May 1, the fee is $90.00. Scouts attending camp with their Scout troops should register with and pay all fees to their Scoutmaster.

Provisional Plan: If your son's troop has not planned to attend camp, or he wishes to attend a second or third week, you may choose to use the "provisional plan." This simply means that the camp provides the troop leadership. The provisional troop program is available each of the regular weeks of camp. All provisional campers make reservations and pay fees to the Council Service Center. Add $5.00 to the fee for using the provisional plan.

Step 2: Help your son develop a savings plan so he may pay his $30.00 by April 28, 1989 and receive the "Early Bird" patch segment.

Step 3: Your son's troop will have a special Parent/Camp Information Night sometime in early spring. At this important meeting you will receive the latest information on his troop's program plan, transportation, baggage, etc.

Transportation: Scout troops and provisional Scout campers will arrange their own transportation to Camp Barstow. Check-in is Sunday afternoon from 2:00 - 4:00. Check-out is Saturday morning from 9:00 - 11:00.

Physical Exam and Health Services: Each Scout is required to have a medical exam by a licensed physician prior to attending camp. However, you need only review the form, health history and sign if he has had a physical exam within the last three years. Forms are available from your Scoutmaster or Council Service Center. During the camp the Health Lodge will be staffed by a qualified health officer. Should any emergency arise, it will be handled at Lexington Medical Center. The camp fee provides accident and sickness insurance for all Scout campers.

THE CAMP

Camp Barstow is a 962 acre camping reservation located 16 miles from Columbia, off Highway 321 South, near Gaston, S.C. Camp Barstow is owned and operated by the Indian Waters Council for all youth meeting Scout membership requirements.

Camp Barstow and the Indian Waters Council offers a program to everyone without regard to race, creed or national origin.

PARENT/VISITOR NIGHT

(Barstowree and Order of the Arrow Tap-Out)

Every Wednesday evening parents and visitors are invited to visit the camp. You may bring a picnic supper for your family and son(s) or join in our camp dinner at 6:00 p.m. for $2.50 per visitor.

Following the dinner, the troops compete in several Scouting skills (the Barstowree games) starting at 7:00 p.m. Following the competition and a visit to your son(s) campsite, the Order of the Arrow (Scout honor campers) may conduct an impressive tap-out ceremony and Indian Pageantry Campfire starting at 8:45 p.m.

Camp offers three nutritious meals a day in the dining hall.
